Project title: Republic Heights

Length: Interactive TV Series Drama

Genre: Mystery Thriller

Project status: Design documents and treatment available

Attached crew: Writer: Adrian Cox

Requires: Development and production finance.

Logline: A mysterious Hi-tech company has a dark secret at its heart. When body parts start turning up in different departments and no one knows who's the unfortunate victim, paranoia and suspicion spread like wildfire through Republic Incorporated.

Synopsis: "Republic Heights" is conceived as an expressionistic/surrealistic drama documenting the sinister goings-on at the high-tech multinational Republic, a company suffering from a severe case of 'corporate psychosis'.

Using interactive digital satellite technology, web sites and SMS information and voting, the drama will engage and involve the viewers in a compelling mystery, keeping them guessing, interacting, voting and watching throughout the 13 part series.
